MINISTRY PROGRAM

ASSOCIATE IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

J. D. Williams, Sr. Bible Institute

Associate in Christian Education

The Associate in Christian Education program is a postsecondary professional degree intended for persons who hold a high school diploma or equivalency certificate, but who have not completed a baccalaureate degree.

Associate in Christian Education degree provides a foundation for various ministry and missions positions, social service, or personal spiritual development. The curriculum emphasizes Christian values as part of this course.

This program requires sixty semester hours of academic credit for graduation.

Objectives

The Associate in Christian Education program is designed to promote growth in students toward personal maturity and professional ministry competence. The objectives of the program are accomplished through classroom instruction, the modeling of instructors, the practice of ministry, program chapel services, and student organizations.

The Associate in Christian Education program seeks to guide students to understand and interpret the Christian faith in the light of its biblical, theological, and historical dimensions and to utilize insights gained from these disciplines for the effective practice of ministry in the church, community, and world.

Admission Requirements

All applicants to the Associate in Christian Education program must have graduated from high school or received a GED (Graduate Equivalence Diploma). Students who have graduated from college with a baccalaureate degree will not be admitted to the Associate in Christian Education program.

Exceptions to these published requirements must be approved by the faculty upon recommendation of the Admissions Committee. In such cases, students will be granted conditional admission. During this period, the student is subject to the same limitations as students under academic probation, described under “Disciplinary Regulations” in the Catalog. Conditional admission will be removed after a student completes 16 semester hours at the Seminary and keeps a grade point average of at least “C” (2.0 on a 4.0 scale).
