

Theology & Apostolic Studies

Course Overview

God's Infallible Word

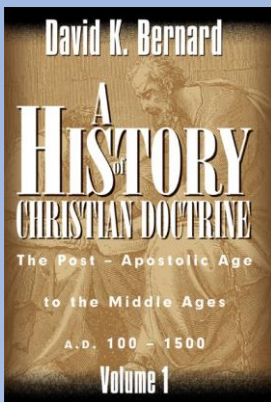

<https://pentecostalpublishing.com/products/gods-infallible-word>

Description: This book discusses the inspiration, canon, transmission, translation, and interpretation of Scripture. It answers questions such as, How do we know the Bible is God's Word? Does the Bible contain errors? How can we interpret the Bible properly?

A History of Christian Doctrine

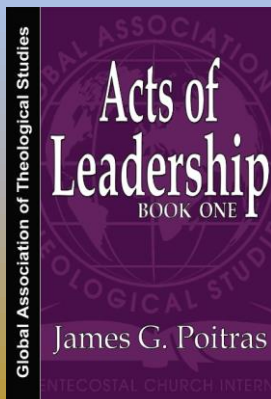

<https://pentecostalpublishing.com/products/a-history-of-christian-doctrine-volume-1>

Description: A History of Christian Doctrine traces doctrinal developments in church history, evaluating them from an Apostolic Pentecostal perspective. It introduces leading historical figures and movements in Christendom and conveys a basic understanding of their beliefs. This scholarly book describes how biblical doctrines were abandoned, how unbiblical doctrines were embraced, and how some still affirmed apostolic teachings.

Acts of Leadership

<https://pentecostalpublishing.com/products/acts-of-leadership-i-gats>

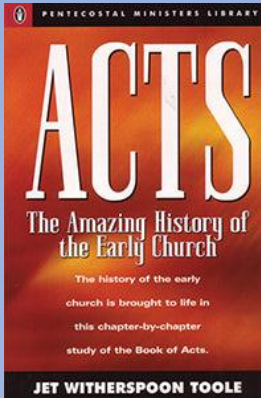

Description: The book of Acts is God's Training Manual for Today's Church. As such it is certainly conceivable this Bible book also contains tidbits on apostolic leadership. Acts of Leadership contains an array of leadership lessons for personal or group study. The material is anchored in the historical Book of Acts yet contains modern-day content based on principles derived from God's Word. Each lesson ends with study questions that can be used in the classroom, for personal reflection, or for group discussion.

Theology & Apostolic Studies

Course Overview

ACTS – The Amazing History of the Early Church

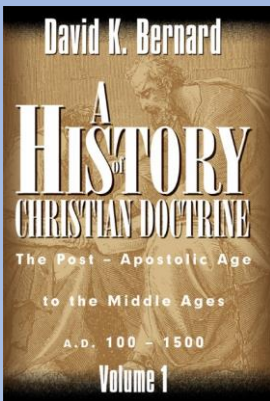

<https://pentecostalpublishing.com/products/acts-witherspoon-the-amazing-history-of-the-early-church>

Description: The history of the Early Church is brought to life in this chapter-by-chapter study of the Book of Acts.

The Oneness of God/The Deity

<https://pentecostalpublishing.com/products/the-oneness-of-god-volume-1-pentecostal-theology-series>

Description: A History of Christian Doctrine traces doctrinal developments in church history, evaluating them from an Apostolic Pentecostal perspective. It introduces leading historical figures and movements in Christendom and conveys a basic understanding of their beliefs. This scholarly book describes how biblical doctrines were abandoned, how unbiblical doctrines were embraced, and how some still affirmed apostolic teachings.

The Family – God’s Institution

JDWSRBI
Material

This book is an essential resource on some of the dynamics of The Family – God’s Institution. Apostolic families cover a wide range of topics such as parenting young children, teens, and adults; singles, marriage, elders, and disability. Bishop Dr. Priester has been teaching lessons to the family for several years. Some of these topics are Fathers can Change the World, The Family God’s Spokesman, When Men Are Silent, Targeted for Destruction, The Ideal Father, and many more. These lessons will help us to understand and exemplify God’s order in the family to manifest his glory and build better family units in our communities.